BESCHRIJVING

An exclusive and special project. A house thought as a Spa in which there are two options to choose: on the one hand you can buy as it is for a price of 1,100,000 euros, and on the other hand, has projected a possible reform that you can see in the pictures. The current owner using it as a wellness spa house for guests. As you can see the possibilities are manifold but the opportunity we present to you is really one of the few that can be seen these days in the market. For more information please contact to us.
